RE: Appellate Case Number: 06-20-00040-CR
Trial Court Case Number: 18F1367-202

Style: Cornell Lodell Witcher
v.
The State of Texas

We have this date received Appellant's Notice of Appeal in the referenced proceeding. Pursuant to Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 32, please complete and return a Docketing Statement, which is available on this Court's website, on or before March 19, 2020.

Pursuant to Section 402.010 (a-1) of the Texas Government Code, any party challenging the constitutionality of a Texas Statute must file a "Challenge to the Constitutionality of a State Statute" form with the court in which the challenge is pending. This form can be accessed on the Court's website.

The Court provides all notices, orders, or other communications about a case by email. All documents filed with this Court must include the filer's email address in addition to any other information required by the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure. It is the filer's responsibility to update the court with any changes to the email address. If the filer's email address changes, the filer must provide our Clerk and, if applicable, eFileTexas.gov and the e-filer's EFSP with the new email address within one business day of the change.

The Sixth Court of Appeals follows the Standards of Conduct adopted by Order of the Texas Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals on February 1, 1999. All attorneys, parties, and pro se litigants appearing before the Sixth Court of Appeals are expected to fully comply with these standards of conduct, as well as all applicable Texas Rules of Professional Conduct, Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure, and the Code of Judicial Conduct. A copy of the Standards of Conduct is available on the Court's website.

Please see the Court's website for electronic filing instructions.

Respectfully submitted,

Debra K. Autrey, Clerk
